New Economic Development Website Launched for Business Retention & Expansion Professionals – brebuzz.com

CHARLOTTE – To help Business Retention & Expansion (BRE) Professionals gain access to information, services, and support tailored to their unique needs and challenges, Customer Service Solutions, Inc. has created www.brebuzz.com. Providing “business intelligence for BRE professionals,” brebuzz.com provides BRE-specific blog posts, news feeds, and links to sample surveys/results.

The site also describes the brebuzz.com research service, removing the hassle of keeping up with news articles and researching existing companies. For example, whether a BRE professional targets 10 or 100 high-impact companies in his/her community, brebuzz.com provides bi-weekly reports on those businesses for such items as:

- Mergers/acquisitions
- Facility closures/expansions
- Leadership turnover
- Company layoffs (locally or elsewhere)
- Earnings and financial reporting.

The brebuzz.com website is a one-stop shop for BRE professionals looking to continuously learn and proactively retain and grow their jobs base.
